July and August 2021 Prayer Letter

Dear Prayer Warriors,

These past two months again have allowed us to see God's goodness, provision, and protection. We had meetings in Kentucky, Ohio, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Delaware in July and August. We were blessed to be able to spend some time with both of our families as well. I am excited to say we have reached 23% raised, and we thank the Lord that He has allowed us to get this far even though we have just started full time deputation.

We spent the first week of August in México. We appreciate the help that both Missionary Sam Eastep and national Pastor Francisco Arrache provided us on our survey trip. I was able to preach twice in Spanish for Pastor Arrache, and was able to lead a young man named Alejandro to Christ while soul winning with Pastor Arrache. Brittany and I both enjoyed being able to see Querétaro and learn much more about this city. We learned about the problems Querétaro has with drug abuse, alcoholism, and high rates of single motherhood. I know Brittany did enjoy this first trip of hers to México, and I know we are both very eager to return.

During September, we will be in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Kentucky. We appreciate your continued prayers as we continue to travel and share God's calling on our lives.

In Christ's service,

Tim Pontius
