Fourth Quarter 2020 Update

Dear Prayer Warriors,

We are thankful that God allowed us to start deputation in 2020! Although our start to deputation did not happen as we had planned and anticipated, God had better plans for us. We were able to present our ministry a couple times in October and a couple times in November, while also beginning to fill up our 2021 calendar. Please continue to pray for us as we start our deputation journey.

Currently, I have a survey trip scheduled for February 27 through March 6 of 2021 with Bro. Sam Eastep. Bro. Eastep is a veteran missionary in León, Mexico (a city about 2 hours from where God has called me in Querétaro). Lord willing, I look forward to being able to see and survey the city of Querétaro for the first time during this trip. Please pray that God will open borders to allow this trip to take place and be productive.

As of the writing of this letter, Charity Pontius (our daughter) is not yet born. We are impatiently awaiting her arrival, and we look forward to sharing the news of her birth with you all.

We thank you for your prayers for our ministry in 2020 and we look forward to telling you of what God will do in 2021!

In Christ's service,

Tim Pontius
